2017 Ticket to a Cure Draw Guidelines & Information

What is the “Ticket to a Cure” Draw?

The “Ticket to a Cure” Draw is a fundraiser in support of the Multiple Sclerosis Society, Atlantic Division. Tickets are made available to all registered participants in the MS Bikes and MS Walks across the Atlantic Region.

General Information

- Once you have finished selling tickets, please send all monies, ticket stubs, unsold tickets, and a completed submission form to the address provided below. Ticket money may also be submitted at the Medavie Blue Cross MS Walk and at the MS Bike events.
- When submitting your ticket money, please do not include money from other pledges or fundraising. We must keep pledges separate from ticket sales. An envelope has been provided to keep your money separate.
- All tickets must be sold at the specified price ($5 per ticket or five for $20), and the specified price must be marked on each ticket stub and on the Ticket Submission Form.
- Once you have returned your ticket stubs and money, proceeds will be put towards your pledge total.
- Sold tickets are not tax deductible.
- Draws will take place at the MS Society, Atlantic Division office on October 2nd, 2017.
- All prize winners will be notified by phone.

All tickets (sold and unsold) and money must be submitted to the MS Society, Atlantic Division by September 29th, 2017
